

A week in Limericks by Rev. James Barnhill (Posted 9-28-16)

This week Clinton and Trump were on stage.

Missing emails and taxes – what rage!

I don't really care. But who does his hair?

I just wish they'd both act their age.

See <http://www.cnn.com/2016/09/27/politics/hillary-clinton-donald-trump-debate-poll/>

A gun or a book, who can say?

So the mob gives the cops Hell to pay.

With grief of this kind who in their right mind

Would be a policeman today!

See <http://www.usatoday.com/story/news/nation/2016/09/21/charlotte-police-man-killed-officers-holding-gun-not-book/90774106/>

And Putin, he thinks it's just fine

The promise he made to malign.

He bombs trucks in Aleppo taking food to the depot.

Didn't somebody mention a red line?

See <http://www.aljazeera.com/news/2016/09/suspends-syria-aid-convoy-bombed-160920080213025.html>

Then there's Arnold who saw eighty seven.

How many to the game did he bring in!

And José went up there. Sometimes life's just not fair.

Do they play golf and baseball in heaven?

See <http://www.aljazeera.com/news/2016/09/suspends-syria-aid-convoy-bombed-160920080213025.html>

See <http://www.cnn.com/2016/09/25/us/mlb-pitcher-jose-fernandez-dead/index.html>

From Seattle to Houston folks cried.

Yet congress sets gun laws aside.

How long til we're willin' to agree with Bob Dillon

That too many people have died?

See <http://www.gunviolencearchive.org/reports/mass-shooting>

Rev. James Barnhill lives near St. Mary's, GA and blogs at www.1thes511.net